Chamberlin Receives NCARB Certification

MADISON, WI. — Wendel Chamberlin, AIA, CCS. was notified March 23, 2004 that certification by the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards had been granted.

The council certifies architectural credentials and maintains certificate records as a clearinghouse for state professional registration boards. State registration boards rely on NCARB certification to verify architects seeking reciprocity.

Wendel Chamberlin is founder and CEO of WC Consulting, Inc. Started in 2002, WC Consulting, Inc. provides project specifications to architects and product specifications to manufacturers.

He received bachelors and masters degrees in architecture from the University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee. He is a registered architect in Wisconsin and is a Certified Construction Specifier. Chamberlin is a past president of the Kansas City Construction Specification Institute (CSI).
